Levied on and to be sold as the property of David Gilliam and James A. Gilliam, to satisfy the above stated Execution and costs.

Democratic Call.

In furtherance of the action of the State Democratic Executive Committee at its meeting on April 7th, 1896, I hereby call a meeting of each Democratic club in Abbeville County to be held on the second day of May, 1896, for the purpose of organizing the clubs for the ensuing election; of electing one executive committee to represent the club in the county executive committee for the ensuing two years; of electing one representative for each twenty-five names or majority fraction thereof on the club roll at the first preceding primary election to represent the club at the county convention to be held at the county seat on the first Monday in May, 1896. I also call a meeting of the Democratic county convention to be held at the county seat on the first Monday in May, 1896, at 11 a. m., for the purpose of electing a county executive committee and a State executive committee for the next ensuing two years; and of electing the number of representatives to which Abbeville county is entitled in the State Democratic convention to be held at the State capital on the third Wednesday in May, 1896. The clubs and county convention in their actions hereunder will be governed and guided by the Constitution of the Democratic party of South Carolina, adopted in State convention, at Columbia, S. C., September 19, 1894.
